“ The family of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew A. Kinnard expresses their heartfelt sympathy and condolences to the family and extended family of the recently departed Joan D.King. As members of Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, starting in the mid 1970s where The Rev. David Durham, Sr.Joan's father, served as senior pastor for many years, we all felt like members of the Durham family such was our relationship with the entire family. Joan was always there if there with her ever present smile whether it was a regular regular or a special service that was occurring. She will be sadly missed by many.Joan, your work in this earthly tabernacle is finished and you did it well. So rest in Eternal Peace. You've earned it.

“ I have known Joan King from the 90s. I worked with her for 10 years and she was my supervisor a few times.Â She was an amazing, fun, loving, caring and great person. We always had a good time with her, listening to Will Smith and Al Green and dancing.Â We always made the most of life when she was around.Â She was a true professional and knew payroll in and out.Â We shared the love of King Tut from Egypt and she was always stylish and well groomed. I loved spending time with her in and out of the office and will always cherish the good times. She will be surely missed and always thought of with love and fond memories.Â Rest in peace Joan.Â
