“ *To The Archer/Pendleton Family:
I worked with Mrs. Archer almost 27 years ago at the Bureau of the Public Debt. Mrs. Archer was always pleasant and gracious to me and I know that God has picked a beautiful flower. Please take comfort in know that. May God continue to bless each and every one of you in this time of transition. Be Blessed in spite of what it seems like.*

“ To the family I offer my sincere condolences for your loss. The pain of losing a loved one in death is like no other pain we ever experience and is the most difficult thing to get through. May you find comfort and have faith in God’s promise of an earthly paradise where even death will no longer exist. That promise is found at Revelation 21:4, 5 which reads “And he [God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” As wonderful as it is that mourning, outcry and pain will be no more, God’s promise even includes doing away with mankind’s ultimate enemy - death. “And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.” 1 Corinthians 15:26
